Align your brand with an organization that makes a real impact on the community when The Belvedere presents Comedian and Actor, Adam Ferrara, for a night of comedy, benefitting Comics Crushing Cancer.

Get ready for a night of unstoppable laughter as Adam Ferrara, a fan-favorite from Rescue Me, Top Gear, and Nurse Jackie—takes the stage for a special performance benefitting Comics Crushing Cancer.

Adam's quick wit, storytelling charm, and New York-meets-South-Florida energy make this an unforgettable night out. But this show is more than comedy—it's comedy with purpose. Every ticket helps fuel Comics Crushing Cancer's mission to support women with the personal costs associated with having breast cancer.
